

We are looking forward to attending AVCJ Singapore Forum on the 17-18 July. With Southeast Asia emerging as an attractive investment destination, this forum will cover key trends topics such as private equity strategies, growing portfolio companies and cross-border activities, venture capital funding and the impact of the digital economy and the institutional investor view on the market. For more information, click here.