

Investment Objective

The objective of the fund is to create long-term wealth for investors by extracting alpha from equity markets.

Fund Profile

The portfolio is managed as a long/short hedge fund, focused on extracting alpha returns from the South African equity market. The funds returns are delivered through fundamental knowledge of South African equities vis-à-vis economic growth and broad economic themes as well as medium to long-term relative valuation opportunities, generating the largest portion of its returns through its directional bias. Relative value pairs, together with absolute longs and shorts seek to stabilize returns in turbulent market conditions, supported by the adjustment to the net exposure.

Cumulative Performance Since Inception

The investment performance is for illustrative purposes only; the investment performance is calculated by taking the actual initial fees and all ongoing fees into account for the amount shown; assuming income is reinvested on the reinvestment date.

The above benchmark(s) are for comparison purposes with the fund's performance. The fund does not follow the benchmark(s).

From 1 November 2023, onwards reporting will be on class 1. The most expensive class available to the public. Performance prior to this date is for class 2.

*The inception date for the portfolio is 1 May 2012. The historical performance figures until the end of 30 September 2016 reflect performance achieved prior to CISCA regulation. The portfolio has been transitioned under CISCA regulations on 1 October 2016 and has since been managed as a regulated product. The annualized total return is the average return earned by an investment each year over a given time period, since date of the launch of the fund. Actual annual figures are available from the manager on request. The highest and lowest 1 year returns represent the highest and lowest actual returns achieved during a 12 month rolling period year since the original launch date of the portfolio. The performance figures given show the yield on a Net Asset value ("NAV") basis. The yield figure is not a forecast. Performance is not guaranteed and investors should not accept it as representing expected future performance. Individual investor performance may differ as a result of initial fees, time of entry/actual investment date, date of reinvestment, and dividends withholding tax. Performance is calculated for a lump sum investment on a Net Asset Value basis The performance figures are reported net of fees with income reinvested

Market Commentary

The US-China tariff dispute paused as both countries agreed to roll back tariffs for 90 days, sparking a broad equity market rally. Global bond yields also rose, and bond auctions disappointed, as Trump's "One Big Beautiful Bill Act" signalled rising debt and fiscal deficits over the coming years. Gold remained attractive as an alternative haven asset while the US dollar weakened.

The US policy environment remains uncertain under Trump's tariff and fiscal policy swings, which prompt mixed signals on future growth and inflation expectations. The Fed held rates steady at 4.5%, remaining in "wait-and-see mode" and signalling stagflation risks as tariffs may drive prices higher while dampening consumer demand and growth. Markets continue to price in rate cuts later in the year as the economy continues to slow. April's CPI fell to 2.3% (core at 2.8%), but underlying inflation risks remained skewed to the upside in the short term due to tariffs.

The European Central Bank kept its key interest rate unchanged at 2.25%. President Christine Lagarde underscored a cautious approach, highlighting that while inflation is easing, the Eurozone's economic outlook remains exposed to risks stemming from ongoing US trade tensions. GDP was revised lower to 0.9% for the year, while inflation is expected to ease to an average of 2.1% on weaker demand and energy costs. Despite the subdued macro backdrop, investor sentiment towards the EU has improved.

China's economy remains under pressure, with activity surveys signalling a contraction. Authorities continue to provide targeted stimulus measures, including rate cuts, liquidity injections and fiscal support for local government and infrastructure projects. Chinese equities initially benefited from the US-China tariff relaxation.

Platinum was the biggest gainer in May, up 9.1%. Gold remained flat while corn was the poorest-performing commodity, down 5.0% for the month.

Locally, the National Treasury's Budget 3.0 was tabled without an increase in VAT but still revealed a slightly larger deficit and a marginally higher debt-to-GDP ratio, even though the ratio is still projected to peak this year. Fiscal consolidation has remained a priority, and no additional fixed debt issuance was announced. As expected, the SARB cut rates by 25bps to 7.25%, with five members favouring a 25bps cut, while one preferred a 50bps cut. The Monetary Policy Committee lowered its forecasts for both inflation and growth, while signalling one additional rate cut later this year. Sentiment was further supported by discussions around a potential shift to a lower inflation target framework and an improved US-South Africa relationship following President Ramaphosa's meeting at the White House, providing a boost to local assets.

In May, South African stocks rallied, with the All-Share Index up 3.1%. Equity indices outperformed the ALBI index, which was up +2.7%. The Rand strengthened 3.3% to R18.00 versus the US dollar, while R214 yields dropped by 36bps to 11.08%. Industrials outperformed in May, rising 3.9%, while resources and financials rose 2.6% and 2.4% respectively. Key sector leaders were Chemicals (+17.9%), Food Producers (+11.2%) and Technology (+5.6%). Laggards included Paper (-0.7%), Tobacco (+0.7%) and Food & Drug Retail (+0.8%). The MSCI SA Index rose 4.9% in US dollar terms during May, outperforming the MSCI EM Index (+4.2%) but lagging the MSCI World Index (+5.9%).

The Assegai fund rose 0.5% during the month. Long positions in Sasol (+1.1%), Glencore (+1%), Netcare (+0.5%), Prosus (+0.41%) and Sanlam (+0.3%) added to positive performance. In contrast, short positions in platinum miners, food producers and a long position in a gold miner detracted during the month.

Glossary

Net Asset Value (NAV) :	Means net asset value, which is the total market value of all assets in a portfolio including any income accruals and less and deductible expenses such as audit fees, brokerage and service fees.
Annualised Return :	Is the weighted average compound growth rate over the performance period measured.
Highest & Lowest Return :	The highest and lowest rolling twelve-month performance of the portfolio since inception.
Total Expense Ratio (TER) :	Reflects the percentage of the average Net Asset Value (NAV) of the portfolio that was incurred as charges, levies and fees related to the management of the portfolio. A higher TER does not necessarily imply a poor return, nor does a low TER imply a good return. The current TER cannot be regarded as an indication of future TER's.
Transaction Costs (TC) :	Is the percentage of the value of the Fund incurred as costs relating to the buying and selling of the Fund's underlying assets. Transaction costs are a necessary cost in administering the Fund and impacts Fund returns.
Total Investment Charges (TIC) :	Should not be considered in isolation as returns may be impacted by many other factors over time including market returns, the type of Fund, investment decisions of the investment manager.
Total Investment Charges (TIC%) :	= TER (%) + TC (%): The Total Investment Charges (TIC), the TER + the TC, is the percentage of the net asset value of the class of the Financial Product incurred as costs relating to the investment of the Financial Product. It should be noted that a TIC is the sum of two calculated ratios (TER+TC).
Standard Deviation :	The deviation of the return of the portfolio relative to its average.
Drawdown :	The greatest peak to trough loss until a new peak is reached.
Sharpe Ratio :	The ratio of excess return over the risk-free rate divided by the total volatility of the portfolio.
Sortino Ratio :	The ratio of excess return over the risk-free rate divided by the downside deviation of the portfolio.
Correlation :	A number between -1 and 1 indicating the similarity of the dispersion of returns between the portfolio and another asset or index with 1 being highly correlated, -1 highly negatively correlated and 0 uncorrelated.
Value at Risk (VaR) :	Value at risk is the minimum loss percentage that can be expected over a specified time period at a predetermined confidence level.
Leverage/Gearing :	The use of securities, including derivative instruments, short positions or borrowed capital to increase the exposure beyond the capital employed to an investment.

Fund Risk

Leverage Risk :	The Fund borrows additional funds, trades on margin or performs short sale trades to amplify investment decisions. This means that the volatility of a hedge fund portfolio can be many times that of the underlying investments due to leverage on a fund.
Derivative Risk :	Derivative positions are financial instruments that derive their value from an underlying asset. Derivatives are exposed to implicit leverage which could result in magnified gains and/or losses on the portfolio.
Counterparty Credit Risk :	Counterparty risk is a type of credit risk and is the risk of default by the counterparty associated with trading derivative contracts. An example of counterparty credit risk is margin or collateral held with a prime broker.
Volatility Risk :	Volatility refers to uncertainty and risk related to size of change of an instrument or portfolio. It is a statistical measure of the dispersion of returns for a given security or market index. Volatility is proportional to the directional exposure of a portfolio and is measured by Value at risk (VaR) which is a statistical technique used to measure and quantify the level of volatility.
Concentration and Sector Risk :	A large proportion of total assets invested in specific assets, sectors or regions. Concentrated positions or concentrated sectors in a portfolio will material impact the returns of the portfolio more so than diversified portfolios.
Correlation Risk :	A measure that determines how assets move in relation to each other. Correlation risk arises when the correlation between asset-classes change. Correlation risk also arises when the correlation within an asset-class changes. Examples of correlation within asset classes include equity pairs trading, fixed income curve trading and commodities pairs trading.
Equity Risk :	Applies to investment in shares or derivatives based on shares. The market price of shares varies depending on supply and demand of the shares. Equity risk is the risk of loss due to the drop in the market price of shares. Equity risk can either be systematic risk which is risk to the entire market based on political and economic indicators or unsystematic risk which is company specific and includes risk relating to company profits, future prospects and general consensus on the company or sector.
