INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE

The Fund is a multi-asset, globally diversified portfolio investing in equities, bonds, property, and money market instruments without restriction. It does not impose target bands across any of these classes and may deviate materially from its benchmark (50% equities, 30% bonds, and 20% money market). We seek to achieve our investment objective of long-term capital growth with an acceptable level of risk through an actively-managed portfolio of assets, spread over a broad range of asset classes, currencies, and geographies in varying proportions over time. The Fund should be viewed as a medium to long term investment.

FUND MANAGER COMMENTARY - MARCH 2025

The Flagship International Flexible Fund -2.2% vs its composite benchmark which was down 2.1% (both in USD), as weaker sentiment driven by tariff uncertainty led to increased volatility and sizeable losses across global markets.

The biggest contributors for the month were Euronext, EQT Corp, and the fund's healthy gold holding, while the main detractors were Celestica and Nvidia.

INVESTMENT COMMENTARY

Global equity markets experienced a torrid month to close the 1st quarter of 2025. In the US, the S&P 500 was down 5.6%, while the Nasdaq and Russell 2000 declined by 8.1% and 6.8% respectively. European markets fared slightly better, with London's FTSE declining by 2%, and the EuroStoxx 50 by 3.9%. In the East, Tokyo's Nikkei 225 declined by 3.4%. Hong Kong's Hang Seng index was one of the few to end the month in the green, gaining 1.1%.

The past month has been all about Trump's tariffs, and there were plenty of them. A blanket tariff of 10% on all countries, and much higher additional individual tariffs on certain countries (e.g. China 54%, Vietnam 46%). This led to several counter-tariffs, notably from China and Canada. The result was a bloodbath in markets during the first week of April, as the S&P dropped more than 9%, and the Nasdaq more than 10% in a single week, marking the S&P's worst week since the COVID-selloff in 2020.

Trump's tariffs can, to some degree, be seen as the straw that broke the camel's back. Consumer sentiment has seen sharp declines, both in high- and low-income households, hitting a 4-year low. This weakening sentiment also became evident in lower-than-expected retail sales, US airlines drastically reducing their revenue forecasts, and US car owners missing their monthly payments at the highest rate in more than 30 years. The number of consumers worried about losing their jobs has also skyrocketed in recent weeks and now sits at levels normally associated with recessions. Small business uncertainty, meanwhile, sits at levels last seen when the survey began in the 1970's. Notably, these small businesses account for nearly 80% of US employment.

On the geopolitical front, Donald Trump and Volodymyr Zelensky had a very public falling out, leading to the US briefly suspending all weapon and information sharing with Ukraine. Trump also reiterated his calls for Greenland to become part of the USA, going as far as stating "we will get it one way or another". In the Middle East, the fragile ceasefire between Israel and Hamas came to an abrupt halt, while in Europe, the German parliament passed a bill loosening its borrowing limit and and unleashing a $547 billion fund to boost its military.

TER

The Flagship International Flexible Fund Class A USD has a Total Expense Ratio (TER) of 1.90%. Financial year-end TER 2.00%. The Total Expense Ratios (TERs) are the percentages of the net asset value of the class of the Financial Product incurred as expenses relating to the administration of the Financial Product. A higher TER does not necessarily imply a poor return, nor does a low TER imply a good return. A current TER may not necessarily be an accurate indication of future TERs. The TER to 30 June 2024 is based on data for the period from 1 July 2021 to 30 June 2024. Cost ratios are calculated using historical actual and/or estimated data and are provided solely as an indication/guide as to the annual expenses/costs that could be incurred. These ratios do not represent any current/actual charges or fees.

Risk Considerations and Important Information

- Collective investments are generally medium to long term investments. The value of units may go down as well as up, and past performance is not necessarily a guide to the future. Investment in the Fund entails risks which are detailed in The Supplement.
- Fund share prices per class are calculated on a net asset value basis, which is the total value of all assets in the portfolio attributable to a share class including any income accruals and less any permissible deductions (such as brokerage, taxation, auditor’s fees, bank charges, director and custodian fees and the annual management fee) from the portfolio, divided by the number of Fund shares of the class in issue.
- Portfolio performance is calculated on a NAV to NAV basis. Dividends will be paid in accordance with the Scheme and Cell Particulars.
- Collective investments are traded at ruling prices. Commission and incentives may be paid. All performance is calculated Total Return, Net of all fees and commissions and in US dollar terms. Forward pricing is used. Up to date Fund prices per share are available on www.bloomberg.com or upon request from the Manager or Administrator.
- Annualised returns are period returns re-scaled to a period of 1 year. This allows investors to compare returns of different assets that they have owned for different lengths of time. Actual annual figures are available to investors upon request. Investment performance calculations are available for verification upon request. The performance is calculated for the Fund. The individual investor performance may differ, as a result of various factors, including the actual investment date, the date of reinvestment and dividend withholding tax.
- The Fund may invest in other collective investments, which levy their own charges. This could result in a higher fee structure for the Fund.
- A schedule of fees and charges and maximum commissions is available on request from the Manager.
- Fluctuations in the value of the underlying assets and the income from them and changes in interest rates mean that the value of the Fund and any income arising from it may fall, as well as rise, and is not guaranteed.
- Deductions of charges and expenses mean that you may not get back the amount you invested.
- The fees charged within the Fund and by the managers of the underlying funds are not guaranteed and may change in the future.
- Notwithstanding ongoing monitoring of the underlying assets within the Fund, there can be no assurance that the performance of the Fund will achieve its stated objectives.
- The Fund may contain shares or units in underlying funds that do not permit dealing every day. Investments in such funds will only be realizable on their dealing days. It is not possible to assess the proper market price of these investments other than on the fund’s dealing days.
- No borrowing will be undertaken by the Fund save for the purpose of short term liquidity requirements. Borrowings will not exceed 10% of the NAV of the Fund. For such purpose the securities of the Fund may be pledged. No scrip borrowing will be allowed.
- The Manager has the right to close the Fund to new investors, in order to manage it more efficiently, in accordance with its mandate.
- Investment in the Fund may not be suitable for all investors. Investors should obtain advice from their financial adviser before proceeding with an investment.
