

ANCHOR SYSTEMATIC FR QI HEDGE FUND

September 2025

Minimum Disclosure Document – Class 1 | Issued 08 October 2025

FUND PROFILE

The Anchor Systematic FR QI Hedge Fund aims to achieve high returns relative to its benchmark, with an acceptance of higher volatility compared to traditional conservative investments.

FUND OBJECTIVE

The Anchor Systematic FR QI Hedge Fund operates by trading a blended portfolio of uncorrelated systematic strategies to deliver consistent, risk-adjusted performance over the long term. The fund is designed to dynamically adjust its asset allocations based on systematic signals, thereby potentially leading to concentrated positions in sectors or securities where trends are strong. Capital allocation is balanced across positions, with dynamic sizing that adjusts based on market conditions and portfolio performance. The fund will invest in a range of instruments including, but not limited to, equity, equity-related securities, money market instruments, fixed interest securities, listed property securities, REITs, currencies, bonds, debentures, options, warrants, debt instruments, preference shares, commodities, notes, exchange traded funds (ETFs), over the counter securities, forex, spot trades, swaps, forward rate agreements (FRAs), contract for difference (CFDs), futures, structured products. The fund will also be allowed to invest in listed and unlisted financial instruments, CIS or other approved retail and qualified investor hedge funds, including offshore investments in line with conditions as determined by regulations from time to time. The strategy will focus on leveraging both long and short positions in these assets, within South African or offshore as per regulatory guidelines. The portfolio will use the Commitment method to calculate the fund's total exposure and will not exceed 350% of the net asset value of the portfolio. The manager, in consultation with the investment manager reserves the right to close the portfolio to new investors on a date determined by the manager.

GLOSSARY:

Net Asset Value (NAV): means net asset value, which is the total market value of all assets in a portfolio including any income accruals less deductible expenses such as audit fees, brokerage and service fees.

Annualised Return: is the weighted average compound growth rate over the performance period measured.

Highest & Lowest Return: The highest and lowest rolling twelve-month performance of the portfolio since inception.

Total Expense Ratio (TER) reflects the percentage of the average Net Asset Value (NAV) of the portfolio that was incurred as charges, levies and fees related to the management of the portfolio. A higher TER does not necessarily imply a poor return, nor does a low TER imply a good return. The current TER cannot be regarded as an indication of future TER's.

Transaction Costs (TC) is the percentage of the value of the Fund incurred as costs relating to the buying and selling of the Fund's underlying assets. Transaction costs are a necessary cost in administering the Fund and impacts Fund returns.

Total Investment Charges (TIC%) = TER (%) + TC (%): The Total Investment Charges (TIC), the TER + the TC, is the percentage of the net asset value of the class of the Financial Product incurred as costs relating to the investment of the Financial Product. It should be noted that a TIC is the sum of two calculated ratios (TER+TC).

Frequency Distribution: How often returns occur within a specified band.

Derivative: A contract that derives its value (positive or negative) from another asset.

Leverage/Gearing: The use of securities, including derivative instruments, short positions or borrowed capital to increase the exposure beyond the capital employed to an investment.

FUND RISK:

Leverage Risk: The Fund borrows additional funds, trades on margin or performs short sale trades to amplify investment decisions. This means that the volatility of a hedge fund portfolio can be many times that of the underlying investments due to leverage on a fund.

Derivative Risk: Derivative positions are financial instruments that derive their value from an underlying asset. Derivatives are exposed to implicit leverage which could result in magnified gains and/or losses on the portfolio.

Counterparty Credit Risk: Counterparty risk is a type of credit risk and is the risk of default by the counterparty associated with trading derivative contracts. An example of counterparty credit risk is margin or collateral held with a prime broker.

Volatility Risk: Volatility refers to uncertainty and risk related to size of change of an instrument or portfolio. It is a statistical measure of the dispersion of returns for a given security or market index. Volatility is proportional to the directional exposure of a portfolio and is measured by Value at risk (VaR) which is a statistical technique used to measure and quantify the level of volatility.

Concentration and Sector Risk: A large proportion of total assets invested in specified assets, sectors or regions. Concentrated positions or concentrated sectors in a portfolio will materially impact the returns of the portfolio more so than diversified portfolios.

Correlation Risk: A measure that determines how assets move in relation to each other. Correlation risk arises when the correlation between asset classes change. Correlation risk also arises when the correlation within an asset class changes. Examples of correlation within asset classes include equity pairs trading, fixed income curve trading and commodities pairs trading.

Equity Risk: Applies to investment in shares or derivatives based on shares. The market price of shares varies depending on supply and demand of the shares. Equity risk is the risk of loss due to the drop in the market price of shares. Equity risk can either be systematic risk which is risk to the entire market based on political and economic indicators or unsystematic risk which is company specific and includes risk relating to company profits, prospects and consensus on the company or sector.

MANDATORY DISCLOSURES:

Collective Investment Schemes are generally medium to long term investments. The value of participatory interests (units) may go down as well as up. Past performance is not necessarily a guide to future performance. Collective investments are traded at ruling prices and can engage in scrip lending and borrowing. A schedule of fees, charges, minimum fees, and maximum commissions is available on request from the manager, as well as a detailed description of how performance fees are calculated and applied. The manager does not provide any guarantee in respect to the capital or the return of the portfolio. Excessive withdrawals from the fund may place the fund under liquidity pressure and in such circumstances, a process of ring fencing of withdrawal instructions and managed pay outs over time may be followed. Commission and incentives may be paid, and if so, are included in the overall costs. Portfolios may be closed to new investors in order to manage it efficiently according to its mandate. Prices are published monthly on our website. Additional information, including Key Investor Information Documents, Minimum Disclosure Document, as well as other information relating to the portfolio is available, free of charge, on request from the manager.

Investment performance is for illustrative purposes only. The investment performance is calculated by taking the actual initial fees and all ongoing into account for the amount shown and income is reinvested on the reinvestment date. The performance figure given show the yield on a Net Asset value ("NAV") basis. The yield figure is not a forecast. Performance is not guaranteed, and investors should not accept it as representing expected future performance. Individual investor performance may differ as a result of initial fees, time of entry/actual
