Risk and Reward Profile

The Risk and Reward Indicator table demonstrates where the Fund ranks in terms of its potential risk and reward. The higher the rank the greater the potential reward but the greater the risk of losing money. The shaded area in the table above shows the Fund's ranking on the Risk and Reward Indicator.

Please note that even the lowest risk class can lose you money and that extreme market circumstances can mean you suffer severe losses in all cases.

This Fund is ranked this rating due to historical price movement of such investments. Please note the Fund's risk category may change in the future.

The indicator does not take into account the following risks of investing in this Fund:

Market risk: The investments of the Fund are subject to normal market fluctuations and other risks inherent in investing in securities.

Currency risk: The Fund may invest its assets in securities denominated in a wide range of currencies, some of which may not be freely convertible.

Currency fluctuations may adversely affect the value of a Fund's investments.

Counterparty risk: The Fund will be subject to the risk of the inability of any counterparty to perform with respect to transactions, whether due to insolvency, bankruptcy or other causes.

Emerging markets risk: The Fund may invest in emerging markets, which involves additional risks and special considerations not typically associated with investing in other more established economies or securities markets.

Alternative assets risk: The Fund have exposure to alternative assets including commodities, loans, hedge funds, private equity and property which may be less liquid, more complex and volatile than traditional asset classes such as equities and bonds. Valuation of these assets may be based on estimates rather than market prices.

Operational risk: There is a risk of a loss to the Fund due to system failures, inadequate controls and human error.

For further risk information please see the Prospectus.
