About MI Tatton Oak ICVC (“the Company”)

The Company is authorised by the Financial Conduct Authority (“FCA”) and its shares can be sold to retail investors. The Company is a Non-UCITS Retail Scheme (or “NURS”).

The Company is an umbrella Open-Ended Investment Company (“OEIC”), which means we can set up separate funds from time to time with the approval of the FCA. Funds are a way of combining your money with that of other investors to buy a wider range of investments. This can help to reduce risk by spreading your money over a wider range of investments and provide access to the services of a professional fund manager. Each fund is divided into shares, with the number of shares you hold representing your share of the fund. The value of a fund is directly related to the value of the assets in which it invests and the number of shares it issues.

The Company currently has four Funds launched as follows:

What may the Funds invest in?

All funds have different aims and may therefore hold a different mix of investments to achieve that aim. In addition, funds have the (limited) ability to invest in other asset types and countries, subject to a fund's investment objectives and policy. Variations to a fund's investments may change over time due to investment opportunities and changes in market conditions.

The Funds will have their assets invested in accordance with the investment objectives and policies. A summary of these is shown below.

Full investment objectives and policies are set out in the Prospectus available at www.fundrock.com/mi-funds/tatton-investment-management-limited/

MI Tatton Blended Defensive Fund

A Sub-fund of MI Tatton Oak ICVC.

What is the Fund's investment objective and policy?

The objective of the Fund is to provide returns over a period of at least 5 years by a combination of capital growth and income generation.

The Investment Manager will manage the portfolio in order to achieve its investment objective by investing at least 70% in collective investment schemes, such as unit trusts, OEICs and closed ended schemes.

The Fund will seek exposure to a diverse portfolio of assets, with a balance between passive and active strategies, with the overall portfolio having a focus to bonds (including government and corporate bonds, which could be investment grade or high yield bonds).

One measure of risk is the proportion invested in the riskiest assets, such as shares in companies. For this Fund, over periods of at least 5 years, in normal market conditions it is expected that the proportion of the Fund exposed to shares (directly and indirectly) will be approximately 30%.

In the shorter term, this weighting may be adjusted tactically as economic and market conditions dictate while not deviating by more than  $\pm 12.5\%$ .

To the extent not invested in shares, other underlying assets in the portfolio (to which there will be indirect exposure) may include bonds (as described above), commodities, property, hedge fund strategies, private equity and derivatives. Some of these investments will be denominated in foreign currencies which may or may not be hedged back to Pounds Sterling.

The Fund may also invest, at the ACD's discretion, directly in other transferable securities including shares and bonds, money market instruments (such as money market funds or government treasury bills), cash and near cash, deposits and any other permitted asset type deemed appropriate to meet the investment objective.

The Fund may temporarily depart from this investment policy in response to the Investment Manager's perception of extraordinary market or political conditions. During these periods and for as long as the Investment Manager deems it necessary, the Fund may adjust the stated percentages with a view to avoiding losses.

The Fund may use derivatives for investment purposes or for Efficient Portfolio Management as appropriate.

MI Tatton Blended Balanced Fund

The Fund is designed for an investor who is; comfortable with holding a significant proportion in higher risk investments in order to have the opportunity for a greater return; is prepared to accept investment losses in the short term in order to achieve potentially greater investment returns over the longer term (7 to 10 years); and who accepts that the portfolio will be subject to fluctuations in value.

MI Tatton Blended Active Fund

The Fund is designed for an investor who is; comfortable with holding a significant proportion of their portfolio in higher risk investments in order to have the opportunity for a greater investment return; is prepared to accept investment losses in the short term in order to achieve potentially greater investment returns over the longer term (10+ years); and who accepts that the portfolio will be subject to significant fluctuations in value.

MI Cautious Portfolio Overlay Fund

The Fund is designed for a conservative investor seeking to maintain capital over the medium to long term (5 to 7 years); an investor who is prepared to accept a lower investment return which can typically be derived from the equity markets, over the longer term (5 to 7 years) in exchange for potential limited losses; who accepts that the portfolio will be subject to fluctuations.

INVESTING

How do I invest?

You can buy shares directly from us or through a professional adviser or other intermediary or investment platform. Application forms for buying shares can be obtained by calling us on +44 (0)345 872 4984, or via our website at www.fundrock.com/mi-funds/tatton-investment-management-limited/. If you have received advice from a FCA authorised intermediary, you will need to agree with them what charge you are paying for their service to you. This can be arranged directly between you and your intermediary.

If investing directly with us or through an intermediary, when we receive your completed application form and payment, we will invest in the fund you have chosen. If we receive your application before 12 noon UK time, we will invest in your chosen Fund on the same business day. If we receive your application after 12 noon UK time, we will invest in your chosen Fund(s) on the following business day.

We will send you or your financial adviser (or both) a confirmation following the investment. You will also be given an account number to use when you contact us.

If you invest through an investment platform, you should contact the platform to invest in the Funds.

You may also telephone the dealing team to invest in the Funds on +44 (0)345 872 4984 between 8.30 a.m. to 4.30 p.m. UK time.

What happens if I change my mind?

If you received advice from a financial adviser, and subsequently invested, you will receive a notice informing you of your right to change your mind and instructions on how to cancel. You will then have 14 days to cancel your investment. If you decide to proceed with your cancellation, we will return your investment money. Please note that if the value of your underlying investment has changed from the time your money was originally invested in the Funds, you may not receive your full money back.

How do I sell shares?

If you invest directly with us or through an intermediary, you can sell your shares by writing to us or calling +44 (0)345 872 4984. We will then send you a confirmation together with a renunciation form, which you will need to complete and return to us. We will sell your shares at the 12 noon UK time valuation point after we receive your instructions. Once we have received all the required documents to settle the deal, we will forward the proceeds of the sale to your designated bank account, normally within three business days. Investors are entitled to redeem their shares on any dealing day subject to certain conditions in the Prospectus and Regulations.

If you invest through an investment platform, you should contact the platform to sell your holding.

Contract notes to an intermediary

Where an intermediary has placed a transaction on an investor's behalf, all copies of contract notes will normally be sent to the intermediary. It is the responsibility of the intermediary to ensure that its client receives a copy of the contract note.

Where an investor has the right to cancel the transaction (typically where investment advice has been received by the investor from a regulated intermediary prior to investment), one copy of the contract note is sent to the investor along with the Cancellation Notice. A further copy is sent directly to the intermediary.

Can I Convert my shares for another share class in the same Fund?

Subject to any restrictions on the eligibility of investors for a particular share class, an investor may at any time convert all or some of their shares ("Original Shares") of one class in a Fund for shares in another class ("New Shares") in the same Fund.

There is no charge for converting between share classes.

Can I Switch between the different Funds?

Subject to any restrictions on the eligibility of investors for a particular share class, an investor may at any time switch all or some of their shares ("Original Shares") for shares of another Fund ("New Shares") in the Company.

The ACD may at its discretion make a charge on the switching of shares between Funds. Any such charge on Switching does not constitute a separate charge payable by a Shareholder, but is rather the application of any redemption charge on the Original Shares and any initial charge on the New Shares, subject to certain waivers.

There is currently no charge for switching or conversions of shares in one class of a Fund for shares in another class of the same Fund.

Please note that under UK tax law a switch of shares in one Fund for shares in any other Fund is treated as a redemption of the Original Shares and a purchase of New Shares and will, for persons subject to taxation, be a realisation of the Original Shares for the purposes of capital gains taxation, which may give rise to a liability to tax, depending upon the investor's circumstances.

An investor who switches shares in one Fund for shares in any other Fund (or who switches between classes of shares) will not be given a right by law to withdraw from or cancel the transaction.

How do you calculate the value of the shares and where can I find out my shares' value?

The value of your shares is linked directly to the value of the investments held in the Fund. We calculate the share price at 12 noon UK time on each business day, which is the Funds valuation point.

The Funds only have one price at which shares can be bought and sold. Any charges we place on buying and selling will be in addition to this figure.

The previous day's dealing prices of shares in the Funds share classes are available at www.fundrock.com/mi-funds/tatton-investment-management-limited/. The prices of shares can also be obtained by calling us on +44 (0)345 872 4984 between 8.30 a.m. to 4.30 p.m. UK time.

As the Funds deal on a forward pricing basis, the prices that appear in these sources will not be the same as those at which investors can currently deal.

Fees detailed in the KIID

The Entry charges and the Ongoing Charges Figure (the OCF) apply to all Classes of both Income and Accumulation Shares and are displayed in the NURS KIID (available separately at www.fundrock.com/mi-funds/tatton-investment-management-limited/). The OCF includes the Investment Management Fee rate detailed as above, as well as additional expenses paid by a Fund. Further details concerning fees and any additional expenses paid by a Fund can be found in the Prospectus.

How will charges and expenses affect my investment?

Shares in a Fund are purchased and sold at the Fund's share price based on Net Asset Value. The initial charge paid as detailed above is deducted from an investor's subscription monies before shares are purchased.

The Funds fees and expenses are deducted from the Fund's income account. This may have the effect of reducing the amount of income available for distribution. However, where the amount of income received by the Fund is insufficient to meet all of the fees and expenses, some or all of such charges and expenses may be charged against capital instead. Any charges made against capital may have the effect of constraining capital growth.

Do you apply a dilution levy?

The actual cost of purchasing, selling or switching underlying investments in a Fund may deviate from the mid-market value used in calculating its share price due to dealing charges, taxes and any spread between buying and selling prices of a Fund's underlying investments.

These costs could have an adverse effect on the value of a Fund, known as "dilution". In order to mitigate the effect of dilution, and in order to protect the interests of existing/continuing shareholders, the ACD has the power to charge a "dilution levy" on the purchase and/or redemption or switching of shares in a Fund. The intention of a dilution levy is to mitigate, as much as possible, the dilutive effect caused by purchases and redemptions.

Where charged, the dilution levy will be shown separately as an addition to the cost of shares when they are issued by the ACD or as a deduction when they are redeemed by the ACD.

The ACD has no entitlement to the dilution levy, which will either be paid into the relevant Fund, in the case of an issue of shares or retained in the Fund, in the case of redemption of shares.

It is not possible to predict accurately whether dilution will occur at any point in time. The need to charge a dilution levy will depend on the volume of net purchases or redemptions, or in relation to any large deals as described below. The ACD may charge a discretionary dilution levy on any sale or redemption of shares if, in its opinion, the existing shareholders (for sales) or continuing shareholders (for redemptions) might otherwise materially be adversely affected. A dilution levy must be imposed only in a manner, that so far as practicable, is fair to all shareholders or potential shareholders. In particular, the dilution levy may be charged in the following circumstances:

where a Fund is in continual decline, in terms of net asset value, as a result of poor market conditions or continual net redemptions, where a Fund experiences a large level of net purchases on any dealing day (i.e. purchases less redemptions) or a large level of net redemptions on any dealing day (i.e. redemptions less purchases) relative to its size;

on "large deals". For these purposes, a large deal is defined as a single purchase or a redemption exceeding 3% of the net asset value of a Fund; in any other case where the ACD is of the opinion that the interests of existing / continuing shareholders and potential shareholders require the imposition of a dilution levy.

Based on future projections and on its experience of managing the Company the ACD is unlikely to impose a dilution levy unless it considers that the dealing costs relating to a Shareholder transaction are significant and will have a material impact on the relevant Fund.

It is not possible to predict accurately whether dilution would occur at any point in time. The level of dilution is not fixed and may change from time to time to reflect the underlying market conditions and the composition of the portfolio. If a dilution levy is required then, based on future projections, the estimated rate or amount of such levy will ordinarily be around 0.75%.

Full details on this policy are available in the Prospectus.

TAX INFORMATION

Tax affects both your personal position and that of the Fund. The tax position may change in the future. If you are unsure about your tax position, you should obtain advice from a professional adviser.

The information below is a general guide based on current UK law and HM Revenue and Customs ("HMRC") practice, which are subject to change. It summarises the tax position of the Funds and of investors who are resident in the UK and hold shares as investments. Prospective investors who are in any doubt as to their tax position, or who may be subject to tax in a jurisdiction other than the UK, are advised to take professional advice.

Do the Funds pay tax?

The Funds do not pay capital gains tax but do pay corporation tax on interest and some other income at a rate that is equal to the basic rate of income tax.

What is my tax position if I invest in the Funds through an ISA?

When you invest through an ISA, there is no personal income tax or capital gains tax to be paid on income or gains in your ISA investment.

The value of any tax advantages will depend on your individual circumstances.

What is my tax position if I invest into the Funds directly?

You may have to pay UK capital gains tax if you sell shares or switch between funds.

All income paid to investors from their investments is treated by HMRC as income (whether we pay the money into your bank account or you choose to allow it to accumulate in a fund). As a direct investor, you will therefore have to pay income tax on any investment income you receive. We pay or accumulate the net amount of your investment income gross and, for the 2026/2027 tax year, individual UK resident holders have an annual tax free allowance to dividend income of £500 per annum. For dividend income received above £500, the current tiers and rates of tax (subject to change) are as follows and will be based upon an individual's level of income:

Basic Rate Taxpayers – 10.75% (basic rate)

Higher Rate Taxpayers – 35.75%

Additional Rate Taxpayers – 39.35%

Individuals should note that if the receipt of dividend income takes them from one band/tier of UK personal taxation to another, the tax due on the excess dividend income over the annual allowance will be at the rates applicable to the new band/tier.

Corporate Shareholders who receive dividend distributions may have to divide them into two (in which case the division will be indicated on the tax voucher). Any part representing dividends received from a company will be treated as dividend income (that is, franked investment income) and no further tax will be due on it. The remainder will be received as an annual payment after deduction of income tax at the basic rate, and Corporate Shareholders may, depending on their circumstances, be liable to tax on the grossed up amount, with the benefit of the 20% income tax credit attached or to reclaim part of the tax credit as shown on the tax voucher.

Dividend distributions will be made gross to shareholders who are not UK resident. Non-resident shareholders who are individuals are not liable to UK income tax on the dividend distribution. Non-UK resident shareholders are recommended to seek professional advice as to the tax consequences of receiving a dividend distribution under the law of the jurisdiction of their residence.

Non-resident trusts may be chargeable to UK income tax on distributions made by a Fund and are recommended to seek professional advice.

CLIENT MONEY

In certain circumstances (including in relation to the purchase and redemption of shares), money in respect of shares will be transferred to a client money bank account with an Approved Bank that the ACD may from time to time select until such transactions can be completed. Money transferred to a client money account will be held in accordance with the FCA Client Money Rules relating to the holding of client money.

The purpose of utilising client money accounts is to protect shareholders should the ACD become insolvent during such a period. All client money bank accounts are non-interest bearing and therefore no interest is due or payable to the shareholders where client money balances are held.

Client money may be held with an Approved Bank outside the UK. In such case, the relevant accounts will be subject to the laws of that state and the client money may be treated in a different manner from that which would apply if the client money were held by a party located in the UK.

Where client money is deposited into an account with an Approved Bank, the Approved Bank may have a security interest or lien over, or right of set-off in relation to such money, to the extent the ACD is permitted to grant such rights by the Client Money Rules.

The ACD may hold client money in an omnibus account which means that shareholder's money may be held in the same account as that of other shareholders. In an insolvency event shareholders would not have a claim against a specific amount in a specific account. Shareholders would claim against the client money pool in general. Pooled property in omnibus accounts held by the ACD may be used for the account of any of the relevant shareholders.

The ACD will not be responsible for any loss or damages suffered by shareholders because of any error or action taken or not taken by any third parties holding client money in accordance with the Client Money Rules, unless the loss arises because the ACD has been negligent or acted fraudulently or in bad faith.

However, if the Approved Bank or Banks cannot repay all the persons to whom it owes money, any shortfall may have to be shared proportionally between all its creditors including shareholders.

Transfer of business

Except in respect of de minimis sums transferred in accordance with the Client Money Rules (where shareholder consent is not required), shareholders agree that the ACD may transfer to another person, as part of a transfer of business to that person, client money balances, provided that:

- a) the sums transferred will be held for the relevant shareholder by the person to whom they are transferred in accordance with the Client Money Rules; or
- b) if not held in accordance with (a), the ACD will exercise all due skill, care and diligence in assessing whether the person to whom the client money is transferred will apply adequate measure to protect these sums.

For the purpose of this paragraph, de minimis shall mean £25 for retail investors and £100 for all other investors.

Unclaimed balances

In certain circumstances, if the ACD has lost touch with a shareholder and there has been no movement on the account (notwithstanding any payments or receipts of charges, interest or similar items), the ACD will be permitted to pay the shareholder's client money balance to charity after six years. At this point, the ACD shall cease to treat such money as client money. The ACD will not do so until reasonable efforts have been made to contact the shareholder in accordance with the Client Money Rules. The shareholder will still be entitled to recover this money from the ACD at a later date irrespective of whether the ACD has paid the money to charity.

Cancellation

If an investor has not had a face-to-face discussion with a representative of the company through which they are making this investment, which could, for example, be the ACD or a company providing financial advice, then the investor is entering into this transaction 'at a distance'.

Where the investor is entering into a transaction 'at a distance', an investor does not have the right to cancel their application to invest in a Fund if the application has been made directly by the investor or if the investor did not meet their adviser or agent face-to-face. However, the ACD may, at its discretion, extend cancellation rights to such an investor but is under no obligation to do so.

If an investor has received face-to-face advice on their investment, they will have a right to change their mind. The investor will be able to exercise the right to cancel within 14 days of receipt of the cancellation notice from the ACD and they will receive a refund of the amount invested either in full or less a deduction to reflect any fall in the Fund's price in the intervening period.

Telephone calls and electronic communications
