

Note that even the lowest category does not mean a risk-free investment, and there are other risks that are not captured by this rating.

This risk indicator is not a guarantee of a fund's future performance. The risk indicator is based on the returns data for 5 years to 31 Dec 2025. While risk indicators are usually relatively stable, they do shift from time to time. The risk indicator will continue to be updated in future fund updates.

See the product disclosure statement (PDS) for more information about the risks associated with investing in this fund.

Annual Return Graph See note 2

This shows the return after fund charges and tax for each year ending 31 March since the fund started. The last bar shows the average annual return since the fund started, up to 31 December 2025.

Important: This does not tell you how the fund will perform in the future.

Returns in this update are after tax at the highest prescribed investor rate (PIR) of tax for an individual New Zealand resident. Your tax may be lower.

What fees are investors charged?

Investors in the Coolabah Active Composite Bond PIE Fund are charged fund charges. In the year to 31 March 2025 these were:

	% of net asset value (inc. GST)
Total fund charges	0.76%
Which are made up of:
Total manager and admin charges (inc. GST)	0.40%
Including:
Manager's basic fee (inc. GST)	0.40%
Other management and administration charges	0.00%
Total performance-based fees	0.36%

(1) "Manager's basic fee" includes an estimate of the charges incurred in the underlying fund in which the fund invests. The estimate incorporates information provided by the underlying fund manager as well as information sourced from the underlying fund's disclosure documents. (2) See the PDS for more information about the basis on which performance fees are charged.

Investors may also be charged individual action fees for specific actions or decisions (for example, for withdrawing from or switching funds). See the PDS for the Coolabah Active Composite Bond PIE Fund on the offer register at <https://disclose-register.companiesoffice.govt.nz> for more information about those fees.

Example of how this applies to an investor

Small differences in fees and charges can have a big impact on your investment over the long term.

Anthony had $10,000 in the fund at the start of the year and did not make any further contributions. At the end of the year, Anthony received a return after fund charges were deducted of $360 (that is 3.60% of his initial $10,000). This gives Anthony a return after tax of $261 for the year.

Notes

1. A combination of actual fund returns and market index returns have been used to determine the risk indicator as the fund has not been operating for the required five years. Market index returns have been used until 31 December 2023 and fund returns thereafter. The risk indicator may therefore provide a less reliable indicator of the fund's future volatility.
2. The bar chart shows fund returns after deducting fees and tax. Tax is deducted at the highest Prescribed Investor Rate of 28%. However, the market index returns are shown before deducting fees and tax.
3. The underlying fund can take long and short positions, use repurchase agreements, borrow and use derivatives and this can mean the underlying fund is geared (or leveraged). Leverage limits are in place to assist with risk management. The underlying fund does not target a specific level of leverage, and does not use leverage simply to increase underlying fund yield. Leverage may be used to obtain additional exposure to mispriced assets that the Investment Manager believes will generate capital gains for the underlying fund. The underlying fund may be leveraged up to a maximum of 250% of NAV. The underlying fund may also take short positions up to a maximum of 250% of NAV. Leverage can amplify gains and also amplify losses. These features mean that the fund will not be appropriate for all investors.
