What are the risks of investing? See note 1

Risk indicator for the Antipodes Emerging Markets Fund (PIE).

⇐ Potentially lower returns				Potentially higher returns ⇒
1	2	3	4	5	6	7
⇐ Lower risk				Higher risk ⇒

The risk indicator is rated from 1 (low) to 7 (high). The rating reflects how much the value of the fund's assets goes up and down. A higher risk generally means higher potential returns over time, but more ups and downs along the way.

To help you clarify your own attitude to risk, you can seek financial advice or work out your risk profile at <https://sorted.org.nz/>.

Note that even the lowest category does not mean a risk-free investment, and there are other risks that are not captured by this rating.

This risk indicator is not a guarantee of a fund's future performance. The risk indicator is based on the returns data for 5 years to 30 Jun 2025. While risk indicators are usually relatively stable, they do shift from time to time. The risk indicator will continue to be updated in future fund updates.

See the product disclosure statement (PDS) for more information about the risks associated with investing in this fund.

How has the fund performed?

	Past year
Annual return (after deductions for charges and tax)	N/A
Annual return (after deductions for charges but before tax)	N/A
Market index annual return (reflects no deduction for charges and tax)	13.67%

The market index return is MSCI Emerging Markets Index (Net) in NZD. This has been the market index since the inception of the fund.

Additional information about the market index is available on the offer register at <https://disclose-register.companiesoffice.govt.nz>.

What fees are investors charged?^{See note 2}

Investors in the Antipodes Emerging Markets Fund (PIE) are charged fund charges which are:

	% of net asset value (inc. GST)
Total fund charges	0.95%
Which are made up of:
Total manager and admin charges (inc. GST)	0.95%
Including:
Manager's basic fee (inc. GST)	0.95%
Other management and administration charges	0.00%
Total performance-based fees	0.00%

(A) "Manager's basic fee" includes an estimate of the charges incurred in the underlying fund in which the fund invests. The estimate incorporates information provided by the underlying fund manager as well as information sourced from the underlying fund's disclosure documents. (B) See the PDS for more information about the basis on which performance fees are charged.

Investors may also be charged individual action fees for specific actions or decisions (for example, for withdrawing from or switching funds). See the PDS for the Antipodes Emerging Markets Fund (PIE) on the offer register at <https://disclose-register.companiesoffice.govt.nz> for more information about those fees.

Example of how this applies to an investor See note 3

Small differences in fees and charges can have a big impact on your investment over the long term.

Anthony had $10,000 in the fund when the fund received its first contribution, 20 February 2025 and did not make any further contributions. At the end of the period to 30 June 2025, Anthony received a return after fund charges were deducted of $451 (that is 4.51% of his initial $10,000). This gives Anthony a return after tax of $417 for the period.

Notes

1. A combination of actual fund returns and market index returns have been used to determine the risk indicator as the fund has not been operating for the required five years. The risk indicator may therefore provide a less reliable indicator of the fund's future volatility.
2. As the fund has not completed a full scheme year as at 31 March 2025, historical fee information is not available.
3. As the fund has not existed for a full year, figures in this example are based on returns from the date of the inception date.
